Butler County, Pa.'s

Musical Theatre Guild 57th Season

The Musical Theatre Guild of Butler (MTG), is a community-based organization specializing in the production of Broadway-style musicals. Founded in 1962, MTG has donated many thousands of dollars to worthy charities in the Butler County area. Major productions are presented in large auditoriums such as the Succop Theater at Butler County Community College.

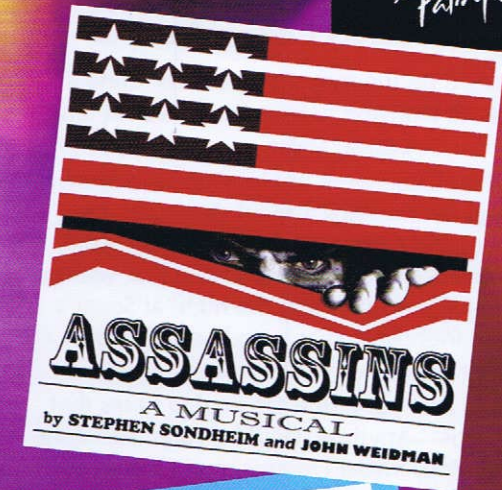

MTG also presents smaller-scale musicals in the intimate setting of the William A. Lehnerd Performance Hall at the MTG Production Center in Butler's Memorial Park.

MTG provides opportunities for professional and amateur actors, singers, musicians, artists and dancers to work together on performances of Broadway-style musicals. Each June, MTG awards the Dot Pasqualichio Memorial Scholarship to deserving students who have participated in MTG shows. MTG has also sponsored Eagle Scout projects and participates in community-wide projects.

A show based on the true story of Patsy Cline's friendship with Houston housewife, and avid fan, Louise Seger.

In 1961 when Cline went to Houston for a show, Seger and her buddies arrived early and, by coincidence, met Cline who was traveling alone. The two women struck up a friendship that was to culminate in Cline spending the night at Seger's house—a friendship that lasted until Cline's untimely death in a plane crash in 1963.

Cline floats in and out of the set singing tunes that made her famous—Anytime, Walkin' After Midnight, She's Got You, Sweet Dreams, and Crazy—to name a few.

In this darkly humorous musical review, Stephen Sondheim (music and lyrics) and John Weidman (book) depict nine misfit men and women who attempted (four of them successfully) to assassinate American Presidents. While every nation has its assassins and would-be assassins, only in America, the authors suggest, do disturbed and disturbing individuals act not because they hope to influence national politics, but because they are wrapped up in a malignant sense of entitlement. Feeling betrayed by the failed promise of American democracy and the American Dream, they strike out at the symbol for America: the American President. Assassins spans several musical styles and many decades in a dizzying series of musical and theatrical inventions that culminate in the assassination of JFK.

BINGO is about a group of die-hard bingo players who stop at nothing to miss their weekly game. In between the number calling, strange rituals and fierce competitions, love blossoms and long lost friends reunite. These lovable characters spring to life with a smart, funny script and bouncy, hummable score. Audiences will be laughing in the aisles when they aren't playing games of bingo along with the cast!
