The Musical Theatre Guild of Butler is an inclusive organization and encourages performers and production staff to participate regardless of age, gender, disability, sexual orientation, race, or ethnic background. Determined by the quality of audition, the production staff will cast the best choice for each role after everyone has had an opportunity to audition. Invitation to audition by the production staff does not guarantee you will be cast. MTG does not pre-cast roles. On occasion, a cast might be expanded to accommodate a large audition turnout. If after the auditions, the production staff believes that a specific role cannot be cast satisfactorily from the individuals who auditioned, other persons may be contacted for additional auditions.

Cast members are expected to be prepared and attend rehearsals for which they are scheduled. The production staff reserves the right to relieve any cast member of the role due to absenteeism. MTG operates a harassment free environment and expects all involved to abide by its standards, policies, and practices.
